

HANGAR AND DECK LAYOUT

As an integral part of a major project HELIOS Maritime Aviation have been fully involved from the outset and have been on hand to advise the design team on the practicalities of the various options and how they relate to legislative requirements.

This close integration within the project team ensures that valuable design time is not wasted and that the end result is fully compliant with the desired level of regulation whilst simultaneously achieving safe and practical operational procedures for the client.